

Safe Places Banbury

Helping vulnerable people feel safe when out and about in Banbury

You are invited to the launch of Safe Places

We are inviting disabled people, older people, their families and carers, professionals, shops and businesses in Banbury, to come along and find out more.

When: Friday 5th December 2014, 10am - 3pm

Where: Banbury Museum Education Resource Centre in Castle Quay Shopping Centre

At 11.00, there will be a presentation by Hannah O'Neill, from Milton Keynes Anti Hate Crime Group followed by Safe Places, a play by My Life My Choice self-advocates with learning disabilities

Please come and join us to find out more

Safe Places Schemes are being set up in Oxfordshire to help people who may be feeling vulnerable or scared.

The scheme is supported in Banbury by Oxfordshire County Council, My Life My Choice, Oxfordshire Family Support Network, Cherwell District Council, Castle Quay Shopping Centre, Thames Valley Police, Carers Oxfordshire, Age UK, Southern Health, Style Acre, The Mid-Counties Cooperative, Frank Wise School, and individual people and parents.
